We are heartbroken by the escalation of events in Ukraine, and the tragic loss of life, displacement of people, culture and history. The safety of our global team remains a priority, and we're in constant communication with Impervians in Ukraine to ensure their well-being and that of their families.

From the start, Imperva has complied with all U.S. government sanctions and export laws. Last week, we made the decision to suspend all new sales and operations in Russia and Belarus. Imperva has given notice to existing customers and deactivated our point of presence in Moscow. We will keep everyone posted if our position changes in the future.

Imperva stands with the people of Ukraine and hopes for a peaceful resolution.
